About the Boutique

In 2002, Lunatic Fringe opened in Sunnyvale, a petite boutique located in Suite C, it was remodeled after a devastating fire early 2004. In April of 2006, Paloma moved the shop into its current home, expanding the boutique and adding a studio for dance, art and more. Over the past several years, Paloma has developed the store not only into an oasis for the belly dance shopper, but also as a hub for dance activity in the Bay Area dance scene. Lunatic Fringe offers an alternative to risky internet shopping or the overwhelming pace of a dance festival.

Lunatic Fringe is filled with treasures to suit the tastes of the dancer lifestyle, from flowing Gypsy skirts and ornate Tribal Jewelry to imported Egyptian beaded two-piece bedlah sets. Costumes are chosen with good design and excellent construction in mind in a variety of sizes and styles; full costumes to complete pieces, student grade to professional quality. Unique one-of-a-kind costume creations and gently used consignment pieces mingle with dance basics such as chiffon skirts and harem pants; all are budget friendly, yet elegant. Paloma hand selects products from major dance manufacturers like Star Styled and Leo's, respected importers such as India Arts and Pharaoh's Treasures, American manufacturers like Saroyan Mastercrafts as well as talented local artisans and designers such as Geisha Moth.

Lunatic Fringe offers one-stop shopping for the dance student who is acquiring the belly dance essentials needed for their studies: from hip wraps to zills, affordable veils, practice music, instructional DVD's and books, a student of the dance will find this an exciting shopping experience. Stop by and explore the wide selection of jewelry and accessories, from unique decorative items to essential products every dancer needs, there is an abundance of items available to touch, feel, and experience.

Lunatic Fringe is available during evening and weekend business hours or by appointment for dancers with busy schedules. Here at our boutique you can try on costumes in a spacious dressing room. Teachers - learn about our student discount program--contact Paloma for more info.
