Belly-Q

Burlesque Bellydance Fusion

What is Belly-Q? It is a fun play on words used to describe Belly Dance Burlesque fusion. Simply replacing the Burly with Belly and it becomes Belly-Q!

Now is the time to but a bada boom into your shimmy and shake! Welcome to the dance class that puts the sass back into the classic beauty of Belly Dance.

Starting Soon at Lunatic Fringe Monday Nights!

Celena began dancing on July 5th, 1973 and has been hooked ever since. Her studies with both Jamilia Salimpour and Aida Al Adawi have influenced her more traditional performance style. She has studied with John Compton and is currently a student of Malia de Felice with whom she shares the same roots and have a mutual respect for each other.

Finger cymbals are her passion along with sword and tray balancing. She's known as "The Killer Ziller," and has had the honor of performing as a guest with John Compton and Habbi' Ru at the Renaissance Faire in Hollister and Novato and throughout the Bay Area including the Casbah in North Beach and Cafe Maroc in Palo Alto.

Troupe Celene has been in existence under my direction for over 10 years now. We have performed at many festivals in the Bay Area including Desert Dance Festival, Cupertino Art and Wine Festival, Carnival of Stars and many others. I teach at the Fremont Adult School and in my home in Los Gatos.

Join Celena for a mid-day class Wednesday from 12:30 pm -1:30pm
